

'the best entertainment in town'

....as seen on the BBC's 'Don't tell the Bride'

GARY GRACE is widely regarded as one of the UK's classiest vocalists. He regularly appears at weddings, private functions and corporate events throughout the UK and Europe, as well as around the world aboard cruise liners.

He is best known for his 'Salute to Sinatra' and 'Kings of Swing' tribute shows and his wider repertoire also includes the jazz standards of the Great American Songbook.

Gary can offer various options to suit your needs and budget, either performing solo with recorded backing music, or else with a band of various sizes ....anything from a duo to an 18-piece orchestra!

For weddings and dinner/dances he can offer a range of possibilities ....providing 'easy listening' or 'dinner jazz' as an accompaniment to the meal and/or 'up tempo' music to get everyone dancing later. In this event, he can also include 60s & 70s dance numbers in his set if required.

Whatever your choice, Gary will bring a touch of class to your event and help to make it an occasion to remember.
